What to pack . . .

by Marty Hackel
Golf Digest's Mr. Style

For your style questions on and off the course, e-mail Mr.Style@golfdigest.com.

Packing is something I have mastered. I've traveled 220 days zigzagging the globe in the past 12 months and recognize mixing business (work) with golf (pleasure) is the sweet upside to all that time on the road. With that in mind, here's my must-have and must-do list for a five-day trip.

1. PACK A suit and one sportcoat; five button-down shirts (two dress shirts and three classic-pattern shirts for work and play); two golf polos (colorful but not too wild); three pairs of trousers (two casual pairs for after-hours and a dress pair for your sportcoat); two pairs of golf shorts; one gym outfit; two belts (make one a →

ERIC VOGEL